MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH : Deputy Director for Support Wm 4 DEC 1963

SUBJECT : Nomination of Paul M. Chretien for the Arthur S. Flemming Awards Program

1. This memorandum transmits a letter for the signature of the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence nominating Paul M. Chretien for the Arthur S. Flemming Awards Program.

2. The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Washington, D. C. sponsors annually the Arthur S. Flemming Awards Program honoring young men in the Federal service who have performed unusual and outstanding work of distinct benefit to the Government. A letter from Mr. James J. Kirwin, III, Nominations Chairman of the Flemming Awards Program, inviting the Agency to nominate candidates and the enclosed announcement of the awards program are attached.

3. Mr. Paul M. Chretien was nominated by the Deputy Director for Support. The nomination of Mr. Chretien is based on his seven years of service as CIA Briefing and Orientation Officer. During this period he was assigned to the Office of Training. Your attention is invited to the criteria for selecting nominees for the Flemming Awards which provides that 1963 awards will be made for outstanding and meritorious performance during the fiscal year ending 30 June 1963.

4. It is requested that you sign the attached letter to Mr. James J. Kirwin, III and the Nomination Form for submission to the Flemming Awards Commission. The original deadline for submission of nominations has been extended to 6 December 1963.

Dear Mr. Kirwin:

I have discussed with a number of our senior officers the nomination of young men in our Agency for the Sixteenth Annual Arthur S. Fleming Awards Program, and we have selected Mr. Paul M. Chretien for nomination.

Mr. Chretien has made outstanding contributions to the effectiveness of the mission of the Central Intelligence Agency and to the intelligence efforts of the United States. We feel that his meritorious work and his achievements in developing better understanding of intelligence functions are significant contributions to the efficiency and prestige of the public service.

I wish to express my appreciation for the continued efforts of the District of Columbia Junior Chamber of Commerce to promote good government by recognizing and encouraging high standards of performance in the Federal service.

Faithfully yours,
